

Shaped Easel Card with Lamination Scene

12 NOVEMBER 2025

A freestanding easel card featuring a shaped die-cut border and a custom lamination scene. The card folds flat for posting but stands proud on display, creating an interactive and eye-catching presentation.

From our live show We are celebrating 3 million LIKES! - Broadcast 12th November 2025 (12 November 2025) - watch it from 47:15.

Start with a cream card blank that has a pre-scored fold line.

Watch this step: 47:30 into the show

Position the largest die from the Traditional Borders set so it overhangs the score line slightly.

Watch this step: 47:45 into the show

Run the die and card through your die-cutting machine to cut the shaped border.

Watch this step: 48:00 into the show

Carefully pop out the cut shape from the card.

Watch this step: 48:30 into the show

Using the same die, cut a complete second shape from matching card stock.

Watch this step: 48:45 into the show

Score a line on the complete shape just above the embossed ridges to create an easel hinge.

Watch this step: 50:00 into the show

Prepare your lamination scene on the shaped card piece using the two-part stamp technique: stamp the solid colour portion first with greens and browns, spray with water to blend, then add the detail stamp in black.

Watch this step: 50:30 into the show

Create a pathway in the lower portion of the design by stamping the path element with brown and green inks.

Watch this step: 55:00 into the show

Optionally enhance the background with watercolour techniques using a brush and water to soften edges and add colour gradation.
Watch this step: 1:02:00 into the show

Glue the decorated shaped piece onto the front of the base card, positioning it below the score line.
Watch this step: 1:08:30 into the show

Fold the card flat for posting; when received, the recipient can stand it upright on a surface to display the scene.

TIPS FROM THE SHOW

- When cutting the shaped border, ensure the die overhangs the score line so the score line is not cut through.
- Use normal card stock for this project if you want the ink to dry quickly; watercolour card allows more blending time but dries slower.
- The embossed detail on the die-cut border adds visual interest and makes the card look more professional.
