

Teapot Lamination Card with Watercolour Effect

29 AUGUST 2025

Create a stunning teapot card featuring a beautiful blue and white china teapot with delicate floral detailing. Using lamination stamps on watercolour paper, you'll achieve a gorgeous hand-painted watercolour effect with fine details that look like traditional porcelain. The finished card is mounted on a dark background, creating an elegant contrast that makes the teapot design truly stand out.

STEP 2

Ink up the solid teapot stamp in teal ink, tapping gently to ensure even coverage across the stamp.

Watch this step: 24:30 into the show

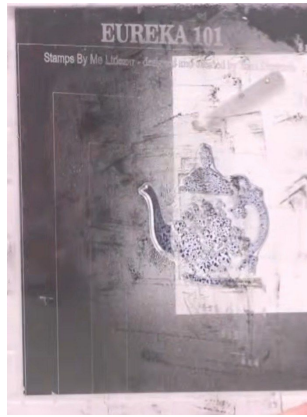

STEP 3

Stamp the solid teapot image onto the watercolour card, pressing down firmly and evenly to ensure good coverage.

Watch this step: 25:45 into the show

STEP 4

Spray the stamped teapot image three times with water to activate the ink and create a watercolour effect. Allow the water to spread across the image naturally.

Watch this step: 26:00 into the show

STEP 5

Gently dab the stamped teapot image with a damp baby wipe or cloth to lift excess ink, creating a watercolour effect. Allow the watercolour paper to absorb the ink for a few seconds without rushing, as it will not drink the ink as quickly as regular card stock.

Watch this step: 28:00 into the show

STEP 6

Blot away any excess water puddles using a dry baby wipe, being careful not to disturb the stamped teapot image.

Watch this step: 28:15 into the show

STEP 7

Ink up the detail stamp in the same teal colour. Carefully align it over the solid teapot image, using the packet as a guide to ensure proper placement.

Watch this step: 31:00 into the show

STEP 8

Stamp the teapot image onto white card using the blue ink, pressing firmly to transfer the fine china pattern details. Ensure good contact with the stamp to reveal all the decorative elements clearly.

Watch this step: 32:45 into the show

STEP 9

Using a brush with a light touch of water and heather ink, paint a subtle shadow beneath the teapot to ground the image on the card.

Watch this step: 36:15 into the show

STEP 10

Add a black ink sentiment stamp below the teapot image, positioning it centrally to complement the design. The sentiment reads 'A cup of tea shared with a friend is happiness brewed to perfection'.

Watch this step: 37:00 into the show

TIPS FROM THE SHOW

- Watercolour card with 100% cotton content gives better results than regular card stock because the ink sits on the surface longer, allowing you to move colour around more easily.
- If the detail stamp does not show enough contrast in the same colour, you can add a second layer in black ink to bring the details to life.
- Always paint a shadow underneath stamped objects to prevent them appearing to float on the page.
