

Multicoloured Poppy Card with Watercolour Splat...

23 MAY 2025

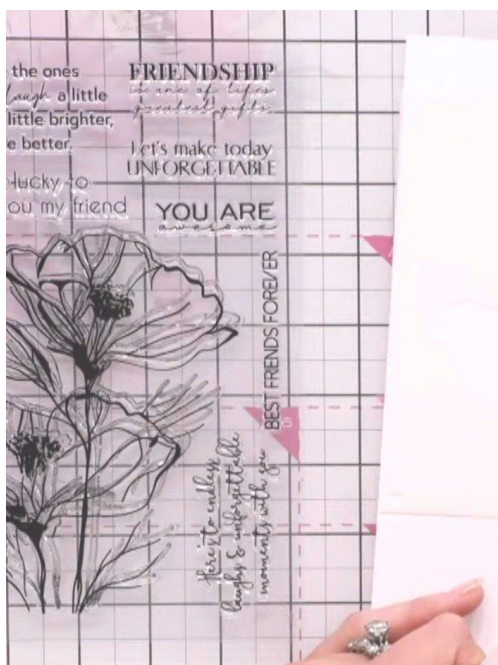

Create a vibrant friendship card featuring bold multicoloured poppies on a dramatic black background with artistic white paint splatters. Using the Radiant Poppies stamp set, you'll layer colourful inks to create stunning floral blooms with leaves, then add a sentiment panel to complete your eye-catching design. This project combines watercolour techniques with stencilling to achieve a modern, artistic look perfect for showing appreciation to friends.

TIPS FROM THE SHOW

- The black ink used is a hybrid pigment ink, so it works with both alcohol markers and water without smudging.
- You can use the stamp independently without the stencils if you prefer a simpler design.
- Layer white ink as a base before applying colour on dark card stock to make colours show more brightly.
