

Horizontal Striped Paper Pieced Card

14 FEBRUARY 2025

Transform your stamped poppy cards into a striking horizontal striped design by cutting them into thin strips and reassembling them on a card blank. The stamped poppy aligns perfectly across the strips to create a seamless, segmented effect.

TIPS FROM THE SHOW

- Line the pieces of card back up like a jigsaw to ensure the design matches perfectly across strips.
- You can cut the strips at different angles or widths for variety, but straight cuts are simplest.
- Save all leftover pieces—they can be paper pieced together to create additional cards.
