

Watercoloured Botanical Leaf Card

A PROJECT FROM OUR LIVE SHOW - CREATE AND CRAFT TV - 11 MARCH 2024

ABOUT THIS PROJECT

A simple card using the hot foiled botanical designs from the colouring book. You wet the petal area and drop watercolour ink onto it, letting the gold foil resist the colour beautifully. The result is an instant handmade card with professional-looking detail.

TIPS FROM THE SHOW

- The gold foil will resist your ink, so even young crafters can achieve professional results.
- The watercolour card stock has high cotton content, so it stays wet longer than traditional card, giving you more time to work.
- You can leave the pages in the book and fold them back, or tear them out and trim them down in a guillotine.
