

Lamination Two-Stamp Coloured Card

A PROJECT FROM OUR LIVE SHOW - CREATE AND CRAFT TV - 25 FEBRUARY 2024

ABOUT THIS PROJECT

A simple two-step stamping technique that makes you look like an accomplished artist. You stamp a solid colour portion first, spray it with water to blend the colours together, then add a detailed outline stamp on top to create a beautifully blended, professional-looking card.

TIPS FROM THE SHOW

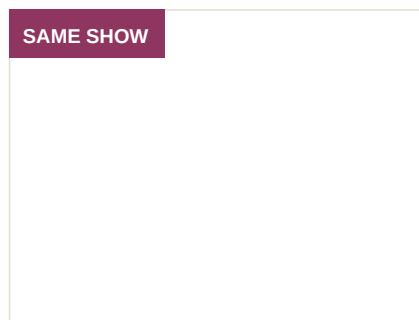

- You can use any colour combination you like on the solid portion – experiment with different ink pad colours.
- Make sure the colour portion is completely dry before stamping the outline on top, or the inks will blend together.
- This technique works beautifully in monochrome (grayscale) for sympathy cards or in bright colours for celebration cards.
