

Simple Envelope from 12x12 Paper Using Box Board

19 JUNE 2026

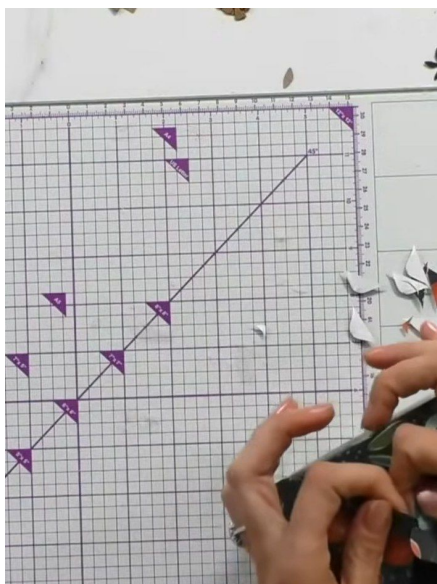

Create a beautiful coordinating envelope using 12x12 decorative paper and a simple box board tool. This elegant envelope features botanical designs in rich greens and dark tones, perfect for presenting handmade cards or small gifts. The technique requires just one measurement and one score line, making it quick and easy to produce a professional-looking result.

WHAT YOU WILL NEED

See the show for everything used.

STEP 1

Score a single line across the 12x12 paper using the scoring tool included with the box board. Position the paper on the board and use the tool to create a crisp fold line.

STEP 4

TIPS FROM THE SHOW

- The envelope requires only one line and one measurement to complete.
- You can round the corners using the corner rounder tool on the box board.

Fold the paper along the score line to create the finished envelope. The decorative paper with leaves and berries should be on the outside, creating a neat folded edge.
